PROSPECTUS COVER SHEET FOR INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES PROJECT

Name: ________________________________ Student Number: ________________________

Topic of Project:

Project Description. On separate sheets of paper, give a detailed description of the project. The description should include how the project relates to your IDS degree plan, as well as the following pieces of information:

1) Hypothesis or Goal of Project. This section should state the major hypothesis of goal of the project and how it relates to the interdisciplinary nature of your degree plan.
2) Methodology. This section is basically an outline your project. It should consist of a 1-3 page description of the steps and procedures to be used in testing the hypothesis or achieving the goal of the project.
3) Library or Resource Materials and/or Persons. This section should contain an extensive bibliography of the library or other reference materials that will be used in the project. If your project is to involve personal interviews, this section should list the persons or organizations to be interviewed.
4) Product. This section should indicate the deliverable product that will result from the project, such as a paper, video, musical composition, etc.

______________________________________________
Student's Signature Date

The following signatures indicate approval of the submitted Prospectus:

Committee Chair/Project Director (printed name) Signature Date

Committee Member (printed name) Signature Date

Committee Member (printed name) Signature Date

______________________________________________
Director of Interdisciplinary Studies Date